The Scandia the Hardest of the Cholera Importers to Fight-Dr. Jenkins Denies Statements of the Normannia Passengers-Kansas and Missouri Health Officials

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 .- The Scandia is the first vessel to arrive thoroughly infected with cholera. The Moravia, Rugia and Normannia had brought it in their steerage and in the case of the latter it had worked among the crew. The Scandia has it from her rived." bow to her stern, from her main deck to her keelson. Cabin passergers, crew and emigrants all have it ir their midst and she will probably be the hardest cholera importer to fight or

The work of fumigating the Scandia was begun long before daybreak. Dr. Jenkins visited the Scandia this morning and examined every person on board. The task was an arduous one, for her immigrant passengers alone

The Scandia's passengers are for the most part Russian Jews. They all boarded at cheap and dirty lodging houses near the wharfs in Hambouses near the wharfs in Ham-burg before they boarded the steamer. All classes were allowed to intermingle dur-ing the trip. To-day they were all re-moved to Hoffman island and there given a bath. They will not be re-turned to the steamer, but will be isolated and their clothing and baggage thoroughly fumigated and disinfected.

The surgeon of the Wyoming has been taken to Swinburne island suffering from diarrhea and vomiting. At 2:30 p. m. the Stonington was alongside the Normannia in the lower

At the office of Lewisohn Bros., 81 Fulton street, this morning, W. H. Bain, manager of the firm's mining business, said that the negotiations for the purchase of the Surf hotel on Fire island were completed at noon. The hotel property consists of 120 acres of ground, thirteen cottages and the steamboat Ripple.

As though the Scandin was not enough for one night, at 2 o'clock this morning Mrs. Person, the mother of the two little children who had died on the Wyoming of a suspicious dis-ease, herself succumbed to the dreaded disease. She with three more were removed from the Wyoming during the late forenoon yesterday and placed in the hospital.

At 6:30 this morning a message received from Swinburne island reported that two bodies and eleven cases of cholera had been removed from the Scandia at that hour. Two deaths occurred and have been discovered on the island. The crew of the quarantine tug Fletcher, which was ordered this morning to transfer the passengers from the Normannia and Rugia to the relief vessels Stonington and New Hampshire, refused to do duty with the tug on this service.

The preparation of the Sound steamer Stonington and the old battle-ship New Hampshire for the reception of the healthier portion of the quarantined cabin passengers was completed this morning, and the two ships, it is expected, will receive their prisoners to-day.

The local health authorities still keep the "No cholera here" signal flying and the Kaiser Wilhelm f m Bremen passed Fire island to-da, after hoisting the flag which denotes "All well on board."

The new addition to the cholera fleet has increased the gravity of the situation at quarantine as the already overtaxed quarantine officers have more than they could well do, but nobody has lost heart and the belief that the scourge will be driven back is strengthened instead of weakened as days go by and no case of cholera is of security arises from the fact that every day draws nearer to cold weather and that the city is getting cleaner because all the health fortifications have been erected and because It cannot be denied that cholera has been besieging the city now for sixteen days, but the health defenders have so far managed to keep the enemy from landing on the coast. Thus it is that New York grows more confident day

So far as known the cholera record Moravia-Twenty-two deaths at sea, one

In port, two sick.
Normannia-Five deaths at sea, nine deaths in port, twenty-five sick.
Rugia-Four deaths at sea, five deaths

Scandia—Thirty-two deaths at sea, two deaths in port, eleven sick.
Totals—Sixy-three deaths at sea, nineteen deaths in port, fifty-two sick.

CHARGES CONTRADICTED.

Dr. Jenkins Positively Denies All But One of the Passengers' Statements.

New York, Sept. 10.-When Dr. Jenkins dropped into an easy chair in his office and consented to an interview, the appeal of the Normannia's passengers to Governor Flower was read to him and he laughed and commented: "What nonsense! How ridiculous! That's a lie."

Then the health officer said: "In a general way I will say that the gentlemen who have drawn up and signed this appeal-excellent people, no doubt -are entirely mistaken in their assertions. They have not been neglected, we are not incompetent and the situation on the Normannia is not at all what they declare it to be. You may sum the whole thing up in a nutshell by saying that these cabin passnell by saying that these cabin pas-sengers want very much to get ashore and write accordingly."

"But, doctor, they make positive and detailed statements, for instance, that the dead bodies of the cholers patients have been left on the steamer for twenty-four hours or more." "And I make a positive statement that such is not the case. I have not known of a dead body being left for that length of time on the Normannia, have you Dr. Talmadge?"

"No. sir." was the deputy health officer's prompt reply.
"They say that the steamer has not been properly fumigated."

"That is silly. Why, we have done nothing but fumigate and disinfect these steamers every since they ar-

"I understand it so, but would add that, in view of the importance of the matter. I have myself repeatedly sent disinfectants on board. Dr. Waiser took enough bichloride of mercury to the Normannia the schor day to disinfect a dozen steamers. Isn't that so,

"It certainly is," said the New Brighton physician, who is a cholera veteran. "I would say, after a thorough visitation and inspection of the Normannia, that this complaint or appeal is absolutely without justifica-

"And how absurd it is for them to pretend that they have not been in communication with a medical expert!" continued Dr. Jenkins. "Dr. Sanborn, who has been a quarantine official for years, has been aboard the Normannia several times a day, and is now stationed there permanently day and night. Besides that from the very first full instructions were given to the ship surgeon for any emergencies

"How about the water?" "It is quite possible their supply was insufficient, but it is the company's fault, not mine. This morning I sent down 3,000 gallons of water and to-morrow I think the company will begin to dispatch water boats regularly. It was decided to visit the famous to have the Missouri river harbor line determined there so that the evil may be removed as soon as possible. The following resolution was adopted:

In view of the present danger of infec-tion from cholera, be it Resolved, That the medical department of all railroads be asked to especially watch the trains and use all reasonable means to detect sick passengers and properly scruti-nize them and also to d sinfect all closets and to try as in their judgment is best to protect all points reached by their lines, and in case a train carries suspicious in-valids we ber the health authorities at the point of their destina ion be notified by wire is practicable, and that also railroad authorities provide proper methods to dis-infect the excreta of all suspected patients.

Cholera Scare in Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 10-Shortly before o'clock this morning four carloads of immigrants arrived at the Union depot from Sweden by way of New York and Pittsburg. The train came here with a clean bill of health, but Albertina Larson, 18 years of age, was in a semi-conscious condition. On the way to the house of a friend she relapsed into unconsciousness and Dr. latter part of the week for Philadel-Garrett of the health department sent phia to take charge of the Arch Street her to the county hospital. She died on the way, and the body was taken to the county morgue and placed in a separate room. The clothing was fumigated and deposited with it.

All sorts of wild stories were set afloat and one of the morning papers ssued a sensational extra, but even before it was generally read Sanitary Officer Walter V. Hoyt was busy at his telephone sending assurances in various directions that it was his positive belief that the woman had not died of cholera. He at once gave the cause of death as exhaustion and the statement was later confirmed by Dr. Garrett himself.

All trains from the East and all en-tering from north and south on the east side of the Mississippi river pass through the relay depot before crossing the bridge.

Cauada's Quarantine Valuetess. MONTREAL, Sept. 10.-Passengers on steamers from Europe charge that the quarantine officers at Grosse Isle treat steerage passengers worse than cattle, refusing them food and water and herding them in a kind of a cattle shed. It is also charged that the disinfection apparatus is valueless save to destroy clothing. Experts in this city predict the advent of the cholera in the next week as the quarantining is declared a regular farce.

Fire Island Secured.

New YORK, Sept. 10.-Fire island was this morning contracted to be sold by D. S. S. Samuel, the present owner, to a party who is thought to represent the state government. The price paid is understood to be $210,000. The purchase includes the hotel, thirteen cottages, 126 acres of beach land and a steamboat to carry passe Pers to and from the mainland.

Montgomery H. Lewis and W. H. Lee Russell, Bookkeeper and Treasurer of the Lombard Investment Company, Embezzle $26,000—They Are Located in Mexico and Will Be Brought Back.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 10.—Mont-gomery H. Lewis and H. W. Lee Russell, well known socially and until quite recently bookkeeper and treasurer, respectively, of the Lombard Investment company, with handsome offices in the Exchange building, have been indicted by the grand jury of Jackson county, now in session, on something over twenty counts charging embezzlement and forgery.

The amount of money taken from the Lombard company by these men is estimated at $26,000; it may be much

Lewis and Russell are now in business in the City of Mexico. Last night William E. Swentzel, second vice president of the Lombard vestment company, secured from Secretary of State Foster at It Formally and Explicitly De-Washington a telegraphic request upon Minister Ryan for the temporary apprehension of the fugitives. Ex-tradition papers will follow immedi-ately. Upon receipt of these papers Lewis and Russell will be turned over to Pinkerton detectives and Special Agent Bowman of the American Surety company who are already on the ground. If all plans do not miscarry the two men will at once be brought back to this city for trial

Thus briefly is told the story of the downfall of two young men. In the case of Russell it will come as a great shock to the community. There are many who will not be surprised to learn that Lewis has gone wrong. He was a handsome fellow and had a somewhat meteoric social career, moving in the front rank of the 400, and was looked upon somewhat as a high roller.
